

WHISKEY FLIGHTS

THE BOURBON FLIGHT

$25

- ELIJAH CRAIG SMALL BATCH
- BLANTON'S ORIGINAL PRIVATE RESERVE SINGLE BARRE
- BOOKER'S

Bourbon sold in the United States must be produced in America from at least 51% corn and stored in a new charred oak cask. It is said that Elijah Craig invented bourbon by aging corn whiskey and moonshine! In 1789 Elijah opened a distillery in Georgetown, Kentucky and with that we have included Elijah Craig Bourbon named after the "inventor".

THE ISLAY FLIGHT

$27

- LAGAVULIN 8YO, LAPHROAIG TRIPLE WOOD, TALISKER STORM.

The Whiskies from this island are known for a "pungent peaty, smokey and oily flavours, with just a hint of salty air and seaweed" because of the use of peat and maritime climate. "Islay's past is pervaded by innumerable tales of home distilling, smuggling and illegal whisky production" and adds that the eight older distilleries all began as small, illicit producers. All were built near water since grain was shipped on boats and the finished whisky was transported via water. For centuries, the whisky was usually aged in sherry casks but bourbon casks from the U.S. are now also frequently used.
